CHICAGO, Oct. 29.—[Exclusive Dis-

"Well, boys will be boys," he said when he heard what they had done.
"I am pleased."

Fire and Smoke Damage a Shipment of Suits—Skirts Wells Fargo Express Takes the Loss

FOR THREE NEW BATTLESHIPS

President to Make Request of Next Congress.

Determined to Show Why They Are Needed Right Away If Economists in the House and Senate Objected to Increased Naval Building Programme.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] In his annual message, President Roosevelt is expected to ask Congress for three new battleships of 20,000 tons burden each. The General Board of the Navy believes we should have four. If the number the President requests be sanctioned by Congress, the navy will be getting more than it expects to get, having its expectations on actions in the past.

It is confidently expected by the naval officers on duty in Washington that no plea on the part of leaders of the House and Senate who urge economy will avail against the President's determination not only to ask for three big vessels but to point out definitely why they should be built. It would be tremendously interesting if the absolute truth concerning the sailing of the ships to the Pacific and the engagement of the chief stockholders could be known. The President has said that the ships will sail on a peace mission. The building plan is to be explained by the speaker of the House and the chief naval officers, or who has even slight opportunity to judge the actions of officials even higher up believes for an instant that there is not some reason, as yet hidden, for making a show of strength to avert war.

CHINESE PUPIL NOT WANTED.
East St. Louis Parochial School Rejects Him and Sends Him to Public Institution.

ST. LOUIS (Ill.) Oct. 29.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The East St. Louis public school authorities will have to decide whether Charlie Wong Hang Lee, Jr., son of a Chinese laundry proprietor, can be received as a pupil. The Rev. Father Sweeney, of St. Patrick's Church, announced today that the boy could not be accommodated at St. Patrick's Parochial school.

Charlie is ten years old, and was permitted to attend the Franklin school while his father lived in St. Louis, and for some time afterward. Then it was discovered that he was no longer a resident of St. Louis and he was told he could not attend school in the city any longer. The laundryman lives near St. Patrick's school and the boy had playmates who went there, so application was made there for him.

SATURN IS KNOTTY.
Protuberances Are Seen at Lick Observatory in Rings of Big Planet.

PLYMOUTH (Eng.) Oct. 29.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, from New York October 21 for Bremen, by way of Plymouth and Cherbourg, arrived here today and reported the loss of her rudder when she was two and a half days out from New York while a fierce storm was raging.

She steamed the rest of the distance 1750 miles, steered by her propellers alone. Her commander, Capt. Polack, remained constantly on the bridge, and did not have any sleep until the steamer reached the English Channel.

Beyond a delay of thirty hours in reaching this port, the passengers of the Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse were in no way discomforted, and she then left Plymouth for Cherbourg this afternoon, without any assistance.

And When You're Buying Underwear --Buy Silverwood's
That's good advice—follow it
And if you ask for a certain weight, weave or color and we cannot produce it double quick, it's because it isn't manufactured.
We want you to be a Silverwood underwear wearer. Four California stores to supply the demand and buying in bigger quantities is what makes the prices low.
It is actual economy to buy Silverwood underwear.
Silverwood prices are not higher, but Silverwood quality is.
You'll find selecting easy, for we've all sizes and weights in wool, linen, cotton, mercerized and fleece-lined—and priced no more than you pay for questionable qualities.

THE CITY IN BRIEF

Look out for the sand man!
NEWS AND BUSINESS.

Are They Burglars?

Roy Mullins, aged 14 years, and Fleet Thompson, aged 8, were arrested last night on a warrant from the Juvenile Court charging them with burglary. The lads are accused of having broken into a warehouse from which was stolen a carpet valued at $65.

Infringement Alleged.

John Engstrom of San Diego filed a bill in equity in the United States Circuit Court yesterday against Leo G. Harse of Pasadena for alleged infringement of a patent coupler. The complainant asks that Harse be enjoined from manufacturing the coupler, which he states is protected by a United States patent.

Suspected Train Robbers.

Jack Garrett and H. Dolan were arrested last night at River Station on suspicion of having held up the train near Del Norte last week. The men are said to have been loitering about River Station during the afternoon. Their general description answers that of the two train robbers. Garrett and Dolan say that they can give a satisfactory account of themselves.

Railroad Changes.

William Rosemann, who for six years has been connected with the Rock Island system, will take a position with the Salt Lake route November 1, as passenger agent, with headquarters in Los Angeles. A promotion will take place in the Rock Island offices here as soon as Rosemann leaves. F. S. Brown, who has been with the Rock Island for some time, has been named as his successor. Henry R. Garren will succeed Brown.

Occidental's Halloween.

It is expected that tomorrow night will mark the beginning of a series of annual Halloween celebrations which will become famous as a part of the college life at Occidental. Plans have been made of a big "jolly-up," in which all the students are expected to participate. The affair is termed a sophomore bonfire. Each class will bring a surprise in some unexpected form of stunt, and a spirit of general sociability will be cultivated. It is the intention of Dr. John Willis Baer, the president of Occidental College, to bring the students together as much as possible in social relation, and to discourage whatever tendency there may be to form cliques and exclusive societies.

BREVITIES.

The members of the Needlework Guild—the annual ingathering will take place at Kramer's Hall on Monday, November 4. All garments should be in the hands of the section presidents by Friday, November 1, the very latest. If any member or those wishing to become members, by contributing two new garments, have not been notified where to send them, the president, Mrs. S. S. Salisbury, Hotel Ingraham, or the secretary, Mrs. Theodore A. Elson, No. 2825 E. Figueroa street, will receive them and credit them to the section to which they belong.

J. W. Frey has moved his stock of mantels, grates, tiles and andirons to his warehouse, corner Los Angeles and Twelfth streets, where can be seen the largest assortment of black and brass fireplace trimmings to be found in the United States.

THIEF RETURNS CHECK.
Writes Victim Whose Office He Robbed That He Retains Cash as Souvenir.

"My Dear Madam: Inclosed you will find your check which I thought I ought to return to you. I have not the ten dollars as a souvenir of my brief but pleasant acquaintance, but the check I return to you. I cannot cash it at the bank, and I do not see why I am called upon to keep it, when you can use it. I am not a hog, even if I am a thief."

This remarkable note was received by Dr. Emily A. Chapman, a chiropractor, of the O. T. Johnson building, yesterday morning. She was robbed Monday afternoon by an office thief, for whom the police long have searched. He is good looking and dresses well. He enters office buildings and interests occupants of offices in alleged accidents in the hallway, then robs their offices in their absence.

Monday afternoon, while Mrs. Chapman was in her office, the fellow ran down the hallway.

"Are you a physician?" he inquired, as he cut of breath.

"I know something of medicine; is anything wrong?" responded Mrs. Chapman.

"A woman on the third floor has fainted and is in a dangerous condition," said the thief.

Mrs. Chapman started to leave the room and then went back and locked the desk.

When she reached the third floor she made a hurried search for the supposed fainting woman, but could not find her.

When she returned to her office she found she had been robbed. Her purse, containing $10, a check and other valuables, had been stolen. She immediately stopped payment on the check.

FOOD POISONS.

Per Cent. of All Diseases the Result of Undigested Putrefying Foods.

Men of affairs, women of society and children with active brains are often afflicted in their habits, living little time to exorcise. To this is added that of high and irregular living—as a result, the stomach cannot stand the demands made upon it.

The abused and overworked stomach does not properly do the work of digestion, food taken in ferments and is poison permeates the whole system. The body loses in weight and comes prey for the attack of whatever disease it may encounter.

Did it ever occur to you how busy at stomach of yours is? It only holds three plates, but in one year you take it to take in 3400 pounds of material, digest it and prepare it for assimilation into the blood. No wonder rebels when overworked. We crowd with steaks and pastry, irritate its lining with spices and acids, and expect the stomach to do its work. It can't do it.

All over the inner layer of the stomach are glands which secrete the necessary enzymes. The abundance of food into the stomach is a signal for these glands to do their work. The more the food, and the more indigestible, the greater the demand upon them, and upon the muscles of the wall of the stomach.

Think of the tons of high-seasoned meats, sweetmeats and appetizers crammed into this little four-ounce mill, and then wonder, if you will, why it fails.

RAIN'S COMING?

Time that you are coming in with that order for a Rain Coat. Then the time will be soon coming when you would be going out arrayed in that Rain Coat.

And when the sun will be in under a cloud that Rain Coat would shed the drops in a manner that would make the proverbial duck's back look like a cheap counterfeit, and when old Sol would smile again that Rain Coat would look like a swaggar, up-to-the-minute Fall Overcoat.

TOURING VINEYARD DISTRICTS.
European Wine Experts to Visit the Producing Fields of This State and Honolulu.

Guy Gautier, one of the largest vine growers of France; Rafael Franco, an equally large vine grower of Puerto Santa Maria, Spain, and Harry E. Blood, representing a well-known vine importing firm, are guests at the Alexandria, and are upon a tour of inspection of the vineyards of California.

The three gentlemen will spend a fortnight in Southern California, and will then proceed north and inspect the great vineyards in the northern and central portions of the State. From there their itinerary takes them to San Francisco, and thence to Honolulu. They will return via Mexico and thence to Europe.

"The vineyards of France are now in a rather poor condition," said Mr. Gautier, "owing to the trouble which led up to the recent excitement among the vine growers. This was caused by too freely adulterating the wines and thus ruining the profit of the grower could make out of a legitimate vineyard. I think that the crop this year will not be up to the standard, but it will be from five to twenty-five years before the effect of the present shortage will be felt. I have long promised myself a tour of inspection through the vineyards of California, and such an opportunity to make it. Your wines are very interesting to the French. We, of course, believe our wines are better, but your wines are so virgin and have so much 'body' that we expect that with the refining effect of a long term of cultivation covering many years, the exquisite bouquet that our wines have will be acquired, and it is to be hoped that this excellent 'body' is not lost."

Fire yesterday at Bradlock Pa., destroyed H. J. Learns' large dry goods, carpet and wall paper establishment; Benner & Co.'s 5 and 10-cent store, and the McNulty building. Loss $120,000.

ISLAND FARMS NEED YANKEES.

NAVAL MAN HERE TELLS OF THE PHILIPPINES.

Commander of Dispatch Boat Running Between Cavite and Olongapo
Now Visiting in Los Angeles—Development Fast Along Educational Lines.

"Capt." Benjamin J. Green, commander of the dispatch boat General De Alva of the United States navy, is visiting relatives in Los Angeles. For eleven years he has been with the navy, having entered the service in 1904 as an able seaman. He served in the Cuban campaign, and

Benjamin J. Green, of Los Angeles, now a warrant officer in the United States Navy, who has seen strenuous service in the Philippines.

was later transferred to the Philippines, where by his courage he rapidly won his promotions.

Of a rather retiring disposition,
Green was recent in telling of his adventure. He was one of five survivors of the small launch gunboat
Wood, which under command of Midshipman

Wood, was carrying messages up the Olongapo River to the back of the country, when they ran into an ambush prepared by the doughty Agui-naldo himself.

After a hard fight, in which six of the men were killed outright and all of the others more or less seriously wounded, they were taken by the enemy, and for three months were held as captives, finally being exchanged for some of the natives invading army. In this episode Green received four wounds, none of which proved fatal. In telling of the affair he said that Aguineldo was very kind to them while they were hostages.

This episode is only one of many which, according to Green, have arisen in the course of events, and through which he has gained his present position. He is well proportioned, standing about six feet in height, and as straight as an arrow. His broad shoulders are crowned with a symmetrical head, which is covered by hair of black, tinged slightly with gray. His skin is bronzed to a deep olive, and he could readily pass for a native Philippine. Sparkling black eyes and pearly teeth place him among the ranks of the "Beau Brummel" of navy officers.

"Development along educational lines has been very rapid in the past three or four years," said Green. "American methods of study have made remarkable changes. A great many of the natives object, however, to sending their children to school, while the children are frequently of the same mind, and as a result only about 50 per cent of the natives in the larger settlements where the schools have been introduced are making use of them.

"Along business lines there is very little activity. American capital is slow in finding its way to these far eastern islands. The lumber business is the only one which is making fair progress, and the greater part of the lumber lands is in the hands of American financiers. The principal kinds of lumber which are being cut are teak, iron and rose wood.

"What the country needs above all things is an immigration of sturdy United States farmers who have a little money to spend in developing. It may be surprising to most people not familiar with the situation that the islands do not even grow sufficient rice, although a rice country, to supply the actual need. The sugar and cacaco industries are not doing any better than at the time of American occupation. The production may be a trifle larger, but the islands need free trade with their mother country, the United States. At present the greatest part of their commerce is handled through Germany.

"A few manufacturing interests have been established, but they are on a comparatively small scale. Two daily American newspapers are flourishing, while there are more than a dozen weeklies scattered about the islands.
When I return I shall resume command of the De Alva, which is running between Cavite and Olongapo.

This is Green's first visit here for several years, and he is enjoying it immensely. He will leave the home of his sister, Mrs. George F. Prince, in about two weeks, to resume his duties.

PREFERS BEING KICKED.

Cat-and-Dog Fight Causes One Coachman to Be Arrested for Using Switch on Another.

Three stubby-tailed dogs, a belligerent-coachman, Maltese cat, and two Irish coachmen, formed the principals in a desperate battle at Orchard avenue and West Twenty-eighth street yesterday morning.

As a result of the battle, a complaint charging battery against one coachman has been issued upon the application of the other coachman, while the gray cat is waiting a chance to get another fall out of the stubby-tailed pup.

Martin Corcoran, coachman for a well-known family at Orchard avenue and West Twenty-eighth street, had trouble for two weeks past with the coachman employed by Daniel Murphy
at Orchard avenue and West Twenty-ninth street, the hedge of young peach trees separating the lawn.

Yesterday morning, while every one

In the neighborhood was taking his or her morning nap, three stubby-tailed puppies, the pride and joy of the Murphy home, found their way out of the back door and marched across the lawn. At the same time a well-seasoned Maltese cat owned by the family in the next home began to take the morning air. The puppies met the cat at the dead line just beneath the peach tree.

Only the birds were witnesses of what occurred, but it is said that terrible language was used; that the Maltese lady called the puppies most outrageous names, and that they retaliated by calling her an old cat and a dog rat catcher, and finally stuck their tongues out. The cat had not been used to such treatment, so she reached out and smacked a puppy on the nose, and as another made a nip at her heel, she kicked him squarely on his inquisitive "little 'meeser."

The other puppy, seeing how the battle went, dashed home and told.
Then things began to happen in earnest. The coachman for the Murphy family came running out, and told the coachman for the other family what he thought of him. Corcoran, who was trimming the peach trees,
stood the talk all right, but the other defending coachman picked up a peach switch and switched him from a point of vantage. Then he came down enough to get whipped. In the meantime the puppies had renewed their grudge against the Maltese cat, and while the maids from the surrounding households cheered and shrieked, the Irish coachmen and the dago cat squared accounts.

Corcoran explained in an apologetic manner that he would not have complained to the police had he not been switched on a certain part of his anatomy generally reserved for kicking puppies.

HOME TELEPHONE COMPANY
CURTAIL EXPENSES.

Old President and General Manager Will Both Retire, and President Will Assume Duties of Both Offices, and Endeavor to Perfect Service System.

Frank W. Wachtler, president of the Long Distance Telephone Company, will succeed Col. John Smith as president of the Long Distance Telephone Company this month. In addition to Wachtler will take over the duties of the company's general manager, W. P. Lantry as general manager of the Union Home Company about the same time.

In combining the office of president and general manager, the Union Home Company is following out a policy of retrenchment, which, while it will save a great amount of money, will also mean the curtailment of the legitimate expenses for the several telephone systems. The new president has announced the appointment of C. H. Tarr as telephone engineer of the Long Distance. The latter will have charge of all the technical construction of the system, and will be in close touch with the local Home in the same capacity.

Wachtler, who is an attorney of the local Home Telephone Company, has been appointed to the same position with the Union Home. The headquarters of the company will probably be in the Currier building, where Wachtler has quarters. The long-distance company of the local Home Telephone Company also are in this building, and this fact brought the question as to a possible consolidation of the Union Home Telephone system, the United States Long Distance Telephone Company of Los Angeles into one concern, similar to the Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Company, which is a consolidation of the local Sunset and Bell companies.

There has been no talk of a consolidation, and as far as the local company is concerned, no action of this kind can be taken until the Union Home Company is in a far stronger position on the Pacific Coast. When the Union Home Telephone Company is out of the Pacific Coast, or even outright, a consolidation in every important city as far as San Diego to Portland, will be time to take consolidation, with the United States Long Distance Company as a connecting link. That the consolidation is a possibility, is very probable, when the consolidation of the individual members is secured. In similar instances in the past, taken in similar instances in the past, Illinois, and other Eastern States.

The Union Home Telephone Company, which is a consolidation of the local companies of Southern California, has been in the hands of the company since the company was organized. The company owns the Home Telephone Company, which is a consolidation of the local companies of Southern California, has been in the hands of the company since the company was organized. The company owns the Home Telephone Company, which is a consolidation of the local companies of Southern California, has been in the hands of the company since the company was organized.

No new issue of securities or bonds for further purchase of outside companies is contemplated, according to Mr. Wachtler, who says every effort will be used in putting the present consolidation in the highest state of perfection.

The Union Home Company does not transact business in the town of Los Angeles, but it is a monthly meeting at the Westmore Hotel. After the meeting, members went to the Auditorium, where they listened to the music of the orchestra, and usually for something fine in music and its kindred arts.

INGLEWOOD PARK CEMETERY

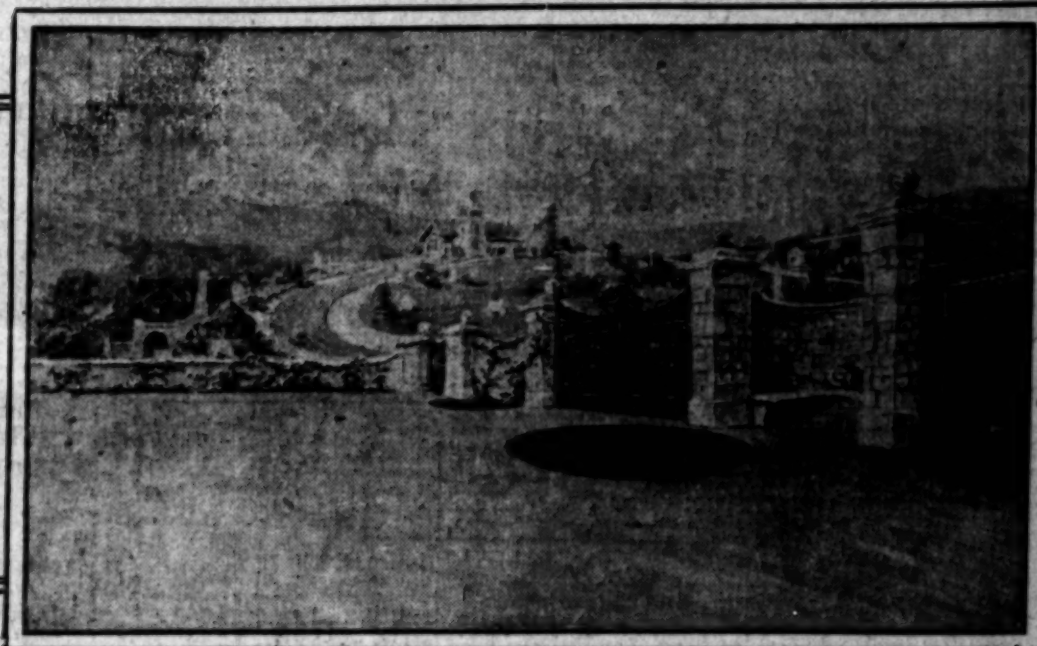

A beautiful park on the Lawn System. Los Angeles' most beautiful Cemetery. Outside the city limits.

Only 30 minutes' ride. Reached by electric cars, and by automobiles and carriages via Boulevard to Redondo.

THERE is a popular demand, clearly and strongly expressed, for Cemeteries outside the city limits of Los Angeles. Inglewood Park Cemetery is on the Inglewood division of the Los Angeles and Redondo Electric Railway, thirty minutes ride from Second and Spring Streets.

THE CHAPEL, JUST COMPLETED.

ENTRANCE AND GENERAL VIEW.

It comprises three hundred acres of elevated, rolling ground, overlooking the city of Los Angeles, the Pacific Ocean, and commanding a fine view of the Sierra Madre range; one of the most sightly spots in the south-west, and admirably adapted for cemetery purposes.

Forty acres have already been laid out and improved. A magnificent stone chapel, a fine superintendent's office and residence, and an imposing granite wall and entrance gates have been built. The improvements are on the park plan, with trees and flowers and lawns, wide driveways and curving oiled roads, following the contour of the different elevations. Work has begun on the second forty acres, the aim being to make a complete, harmonious whole.

The lawn system is used, mounds, copings, small tombstones and fences not being allowed, though ample scope is permitted in monuments and floral decorations. The work is under the personal supervision of the superintendent, Capt. L. G. Loomis, who has a wide reputation for securing the best possible results in work of this kind.

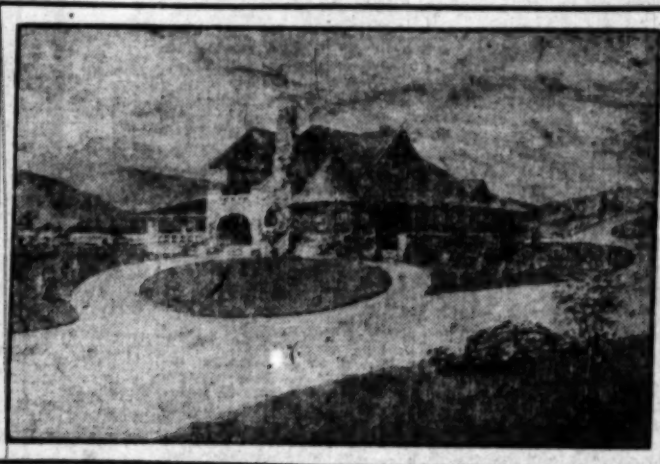

Especial attention has been given to the planting of trees and shrubbery, and no expense has been spared to secure the rarest specimens. The hillsides in the background and all other fitting spots are being set out with California wild shrubbery of all desirable varieties, such as holly, harberry, etc. So with trees, Monterey cypress for the hillsides, flowering acacias, California bay, and the like, being planted in profusion. The list of rare and beautiful varieties used is very large.

It is needless to say that the complications and embarrassing conditions that have arisen in cases where cemeteries have been located too near the residence sections can never exist with regard to Inglewood Park Cemetery. The site was chosen in order to avoid precisely such conditions. It is amply sufficient to meet all requirements even of such a rapidly growing city as Los Angeles. It can never be disturbed.

The cemetery association owns its own wells, pumping plant and reservoir, water being piped to each plot, and a supply ample for the entire 300 acres can be developed. During the summer season 300,000 gallons daily were used in lawn sprinkling. Over seven miles of water pipe have been laid in the grounds.

Everything that money and men, brains and experience could provide has been and is being used and expended to make this beautiful cemetery a model resting place for the dead. Though a comparatively new cemetery a wonderful transformation has taken place.

People who have visited Inglewood Park Cemetery and afterward inspected other burial places have invariably come back to us and purchased plots.

OFFICE, AND RESIDENCE OF SUPERINTENDENT

No possible objection can be raised on any score to this cemetery.

We declare without fear of contradiction that in no other cemetery in the country has so much been accomplished within such a short period, or with such large actual expenditure. Our plans are based and are being carried out on a harmonious, lavish scale that shall give the people of Los Angeles the most beautiful and most artistic resting place for the dead on the Pacific slope.

A solid granite, concrete and steel chapel, with tile roof, as shown in the illustration, has just been completed. Complete chapel furnishings for 250 people will be installed in a few days. A perfectly ventilated receiving vault, with sixty-seven receptacles, partly underground, provides temporary resting places before interments. Caskets can be lowered from the chapel directly into the receiving vault.

In the rear of the chapel and under the same roof will be the crematory. In the tower of the columbarium the repository for urns containing the ashes of the dead.

The entrance wall, four hundred feet long, built of California white granite, with its two large gates and smaller gates for pedestrians, is pronounced to be the most beautiful cemetery entrance on the Pacific slope.

Every plot sold is under perpetual care provision. A large sum has been set aside for this purpose, of which only the interest can be used, making the care perpetual in fact as well as in name.

At the left of the entrance is the residence of the superintendent, which also contains waiting rooms and the cemetery office of the association.

Only half an hour's ride from Los Angeles, the transportation facilities are excellent. Cars of the Los Angeles and Redondo electric railway pass the entrance and a spur track has been constructed for the accommodation of funeral parties. The railway company maintains a funeral car, accommodating sixty persons, which can be chartered for $18. For carriages and automobiles any city street may be taken to Slauson avenue, thence west to the cemetery over good roads.

Four times as many interments have been made in Inglewood Park Cemetery as in any other new cemetery within such a short space of time.

The public is cordially invited to visit this cemetery. The management will be pleased to have any one interested call at the city office, 214 Mercantile Place, where full information may be had. A visit to the cemetery may be made without expense, an automobile being kept by the association for that purpose.

The office of the superintendent is kept constantly open and he may be reached by telephone at any hour of the day or night. Home A9593.

PERPLEXING. MIXED OVER METHUSELAH.

EQUINE RELIC OF FORMER AGE TANGLES UP COURTS.

Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Says Mule Is Too Old to Work, and Owner Says Kill Him, but Court Stays Hand of Execution.

An ancient mule, yclept Methuselah, is causing all sorts of trouble in Pasadena. The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, its officers and the two courts are in a tangle because of this antique equine. Incidentally, a business man is also tied up, and must remain away from his business until the matter of the mule is adjusted.

The mule has been condemned to death. Because the execution didn't come off on schedule time all the trouble arose. The mule was due to die some days ago, but the soft heart of the headman stayed the ax, and now the trouble is at white heat.

Methuselah was purchased in Los Angeles several weeks ago. E. M. Wardwell of the Pacific Exploration Company in San Bernardino county wanted him to haul water a distance of two and a half miles to the mine. One trip a day was what was to be required, and drinking water was to be provided. A youthful attendant was to accompany the mule to and from the spring to prevent any dereliction of duty.

When Methuselah reached Monrovia on his day-by-day journey to the scene of his future labor, he was held up by Monsieur L. H. De Biron, ex-veterinary surgeon of the Pasadena Humane Society.

"He must go to the dentist's before he can work," was the dictum of Monsieur De Biron.

To the dentist's Methuselah obediently went, and the dentist pulled two teeth, which had hitherto prevented the mule from eating.

"Aha!" quoth the surgeon. "The abrasions of the jaw forbid this ancient mule from working."

Meanwhile, Mr. Wardwell was hailed into court. Justice Klamroth, who presides over a part of the destinies of Pasadena, decided that Mr. Wardwell must answer to the charge of cruelty to animals—although Methuselah was only one. Then the abrasions in Methuselah's jaw healed, and there was nothing to show the court by way of an exhibit.

"The mule isn't fit to live," said the society.

"Kill him, then, and let me go about my business," was Mr. Wardwell's heartiest answer.

"Aha!" again chuckled the society. "We will kill him." It sounded like a melodrama.

Two days passed. Mr. Wardwell thought that if the mule wasn't worth killing at once he wasn't worth killing at all, and he withdrew his permission to the society to kill Methuselah.

"The mule is too old to work," this was the complaint that confronted Mr. Wardwell.

Drs. Daniels and Young said the mule was fit for light work, and was not diseased.

But again Mr. Wardwell was hailed into court. "How do you plead?" asked Justice Klamroth.

"Not guilty," was the prompt answer.

"You'd better plead guilty. It will go easier with you," was the society's quiet hint. "You think you can escape, but not even possible."

"All right," said Mr. Wardwell, "do your worst."

The orchestra played some trembly music as the case went on—went on the calendar.

Yesterday was the date set for the trial. The courtroom was filled. Pasadena turned out in force. Lawyers were there, witnesses crowded each other to get to the front.

"The city of Pasadena versus the mule, Methuselah," chanted the clerk. Justice Klamroth looked annoyed.

His glance pierced the clerk's sensibilities, and the clerk corrected himself.

Then the heartless Mr. Wardwell asked for a change of venue, and presented an affidavit that made the judge, the clerk and the audience indignant. There was nothing for Justice Klamroth to do but to grant the request, and when the case came up, if it does, it will be in Justice McDonald's court. Justice McDonald and the attorneys of his court are already busy planning dire "doings" to the officials of Justice Klamroth's court, for nobody wants the mule case, and the thoughtless beast is too big and strong and husky to die.

PATROLMAN IN PERIL.

Albert Keym, who is 6 feet, 2 inches tall, and weighs 235 pounds, made an attack on Patrolman Matukiwiz at Third and Main street last night and was prevented from harming him only through the alertness of Patrol Driver Mart, who went to the officer's aid.

Keym was discharged recently from the asylum at Patton. Since then he has resided at a downtown lodging house, and has been employed in a grading camp. He suffered a relapse last night and raised a commotion on the street. Matukiwiz managed to hold the big fellow until the patrol wagon arrived. As the driver approached, he saw that Keym was about to strike the officer. Throwing his lines to a citizen, Mart leaped from his seat and seized Keym. Two officers were required to hold Keym in the wagon until they reached the Receiving Hospital.

The initial steps have been taken for the day's festivities and the programme will be in charge of Miss H. Wickelizer, J. G. McLean, Ella Slauter, M. M. Merry, A. Kessler and J. P. Tenney.

SWILL HAULERS ARRESTED.

Police officers arrested five drivers of swill wagons early this morning for hauling rubbish without a license.

The arresting officers say the arrests were made because certain rubbish haulers of the city claim that swill men and others collect rubbish and pay no license, while the rubbish men have to pay $1 a month. Those arrested were Claude Forsythe, driver for City Trustee Stevens of Vernon; R. A. White, E. B. Durkin of Durbin Ranch Company; R. E. Austin and J. W. Clements. Test cases will be made of these arrests.
